

Ms Kunjan Garg

T: +919946668933

E: kunjan.garg@gmail.com

W: architecture.rgb@gmail.com

Qualification:

B.Arch. from CEPT University

As a student at CEPT, attended studios under Prof Kurula Varkey, Prof Anant Raje, Prof Neelkanth Chhaya and Prof Miki Desai. Gained formative experience through extra-curricular involvement in theatre, art and literature.

1998-99: Trained under Ar. Kailash Pradhan in Gangtok, Sikkim. Gained experience in working with alternative conditions of terrain, climate and materials.

1999-2000: Attended an Urban Design studio at the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, New York as an exchange student from CEPT under Prof. Kenneth Warriner.

2000-03: Core member of the School of Architecture Theatre Group, under the guidance of artist Murali Cheerth. Developed productions and performed at prestigious venues such as the Darpana Academy, Ahmedabad and the National Human Rights Conference at Panchgini.

Work Experience:

2000-2001: Worked with Ar. Bijoy Jain at his Alibaug office. Worked on projects such as the Niloufer Kapadia house and the Nrityagram Performance Space.

2003-2005: Freelance work based in Ahmedabad. Completed a residence at Baroda.

2004-2005: Assisted Ar. Girish Karnawat with the competition entry to the Bhopal Gas Tragedy Memorial.

2006: Co-founded Mangrove Architecture Alliance with Ar. Raj Menon.
Mangrove was awarded the Young Designer Award by the Indian Architect and Builder in 2014.
Mangrove won the IIA Kerala State Gold Leaf Award in Residential Architecture in 2014.
Mangrove has curated and facilitated content for The IIA Design Talks [2011-13], the IIA Young Architects' Festival [2014] and have conceptualized the Living Monsoon program for the IIA Cochin Centre spanning the years 2015-17.

2011: Co-founded RGB Architecture Studio with Ar. Raj Menon and Ar. Niranjana Das Sharma.
The firm has been involved in developing an architectural practice rooted in its context, and responsive to its contemporary conditions.

2017-2020 onwards: Visiting Faculty at KMEA College of Architecture, Aluva, Kerala. Taught Architectural Design Studio to foundation year students.